

Tudor Williams, ABC, MC
Master Communicator 1989

Tudor is recognized internationally for his communication and issues management research, change management strategies and strategic communication planning. With over 25 years of professional wisdom earned in communication management, he leads Tudor Williams Inc. a management consulting firm. In recent years he has helped twisurveys earn a valued market niche with innovative best practices employee and member research.

His communication management career began with eight years in corporate public affairs management. He has led the Canadian communication practices for two international consulting firms, Towers Perrin and The Alexander Consulting Group (now AON). He established his own consultancy eleven years ago.

This year, Tudor was named the recipient of the IABC Fellow Award – the highest award IABC bestows on a member. He is the recipient of many international and national awards including six IABC International Gold Quill Awards and a number of IABC Canada Silver Leaf Awards.

Tudor has spoken frequently at international conferences including the Conference Board of America and IABC.