

Lynn Barter, ABC, MC
Master Communicator 2016

Associate Executive Director of the Newfoundland and Labrador Medical Association, St. John's, Newfoundland

Lynn has contributed thousands of volunteer hours to further the communication profession, helping communication professionals and business executives grow their knowledge and advance their careers through strategic communication, and being a champion for the Association through her work. Lynn is a past president of IABC NL, a past chair of IABC Canada East and 2017 Gold Quill chair. She is a strong role model for those aspiring to a career in our profession and an inspiration to those who work with her.

October 2017