

Jacqui d'Eon, P.Eng., ABC, MC

Master Communicator 2008

Jacqui earned her ABC in 1998 and has been a tireless IABC volunteer ever since. A native of Halifax, Jacqui is a graduate of Saint Mary's University and Dalhousie University. Jacqui has made the transition from professional engineer to Master Communicator.

With 20 years' experience at P&G and 10 years as the Chief Communications Officer for Deloitte Canada, she can get to the core of issues and identifies the pragmatic, strategic solutions quickly. Jacqui has owned and operated her own consultancy for the last six years.

Currently, the Principal of JAd'E Communications Ltd., she writes a weekly blog, a monthly newsletter and is active on Twitter and Linked In.